

Grant Recipients 2013

- Cen-Clear Child Services, Inc. received $750 for their Project PLACE (Promoting Literacy through Adult/Child Education);
- The Children's Aid Society in Clearfield County was given $750 for the Nurturing Parenting Program;
- The Clearfield Revitalization Corporation received $400 for their annual Bloom and Berry Bash;
- The American Cancer Society, Clearfield/Elk Unit was given $875 to help promote colorectal health through free clinics;
- Central PA Community Action Agency, Inc. received $400 for their Group Workcamps which bring individuals and youths from around the country to our area to perform home repairs for low income, elderly and disabled families;
- Haven House Shelter, received $400 to help with improvements and repairs to their shelter;
- Second Harvest Food Bank of Northwest Pennsylvania got $500 for mobile food pantries in Clearfield County;
- Kitchen of Care-West Side United Methodist Church in Clearfield was given $500 to help them continue to provide a free meal each Monday;
- Pentz Run Youth Services, Inc. in DuBois, got $400 to assist them in re-roofing their main building that provides emergency shelter.

From the Sara J. Mattern Fund (for Osceola Mills organizations only)

- Osceola Mills Community Library-$420.76
- Osceola Mills Community Historical Society-$420.76
- Osceola Mills United Methodist Church-$420.76