

Grant Recipients 2014

- The Salvation Army of Clearfield was given $1,000 for their fuel assistance program.
- Central PA Community Action, Inc. gets $1,000 to fund heating upgrades to the Clearfield Food Pantry located in the Trinity United Methodist Church basement.
- The Bob Perks Cancer Assistance Fund received $1,000 to provide gift cards for food to Clearfield County residents dealing with cancer. This fund gives financial support to those battling the disease in Clearfield and other counties.
- Penn Highlands DuBois was given $1,000 to provide education materials to patients with Chronic Heart Failure and Chronic Obstructive Pulmonary Disease to help improve their quality of life.
- The Free Medical Clinic of DuBois, Inc. received $1,000 for a bariatric scale for their health management and weight control program.
- ARC of Clearfield/Jefferson Counties will receive $600 for opening a Recreation and Respite Club in Clearfield to provide recreation and socialization services to individuals with intellectual, physical and developmental disabilities.
- Cen Clear, Inc. Child Services, Inc. is getting $500 for their Infant/Toddler Home Safety program that provides safety devices to families that receive early childhood services.
- Central Intermediate Unit #10 will get $500 for their STEM Camp which helps Middle School students with science, technology, engineering and math (STEM). This summer camp will provide hands on experiences for the students to increase their interest in these studies.
- Children's Aid Society will get $500 for their Nurturing Program for Teen Parents.
- The Animal Welfare Council of the Alleghenies received $500 to help with their pet food voucher program for low income residents.
- Glen Richey Sportsmen's Association, Inc. received $500 to assist them in providing potable water for the Glen Richey Sportsmen's Club.
- The Clearfield Swimming Pool Association, Inc. will get $500 to install outdoor lighting at the Clearfield Community Swimming Pool.
- The DuBois Public Library got $500 for their Learn & Laugh with LEGO's program that supports education in science, technology, engineering and math by utilizing LEGO Education classroom kits.
- Haven House Shelter in DuBois received $400 for a new computer to assist guests with resume preparation and job searches.

From the Sara J. Mattern Fund (for Osceola Mills organizations only)

- Osceola Mills Community Library-$1,649.02
- Osceola Mills Community Historical Society-$1,649.01
- Osceola Mills United Methodist Church-$700

